The hottest race day of the season saw only the hardest Striders come out to compete. Karen Davis brought out more historical photos for the shadow box space inside the Field House honoring the 40th anniversary of the Striders which is now complete. Karen then went off to Oregon to run with the elite. Bob Chadwick ran the River Grove 5k in 28:56, 45th/148. Don't forget to get a copy of this month's Chicago Athlete to see a full page article honoring the Riis Park Striders.
